

Press Release

Central Agency for Public Mobilization And Statistics

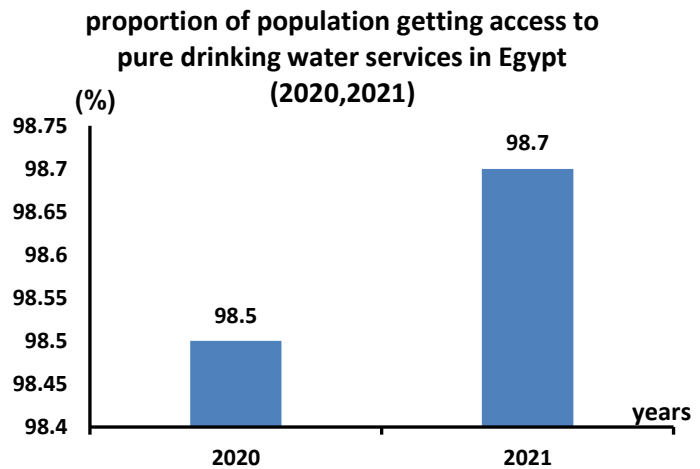

On the occasion of " World Water Day"

98.7% Proportion of population getting access to pure drinking water services in Egypt in 2021, versus 98.5% in 2020

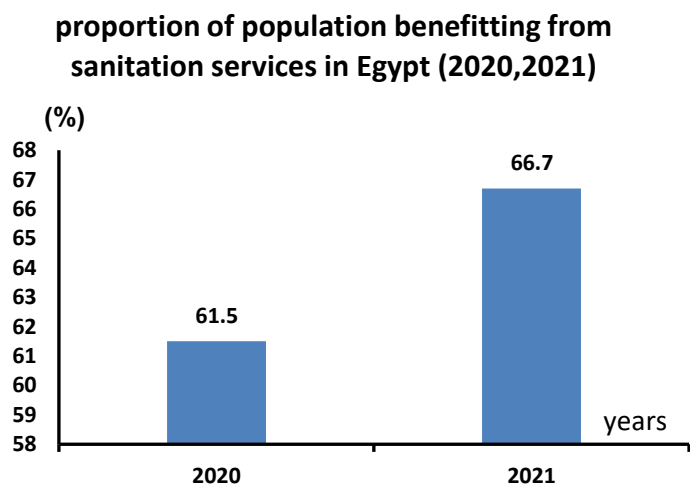

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics issued today 22 / 3 / 2022 a press release on the occasion of World Water Day that is celebrated in 22nd March annually based on the United Nations General Assembly adoption since 1992. The theme of this year 2022 celebration is "Groundwater"

The most important indicators are :

- Proportion of population getting access to pure drinking water services in Egypt Reached to 98.7% of the total population in 2021, versus 98.5% in 2020.

- Proportion of population benefitting from sanitation services in Egypt Reached to 66.7% of the total population in 2021, versus 61.5% in 2020.

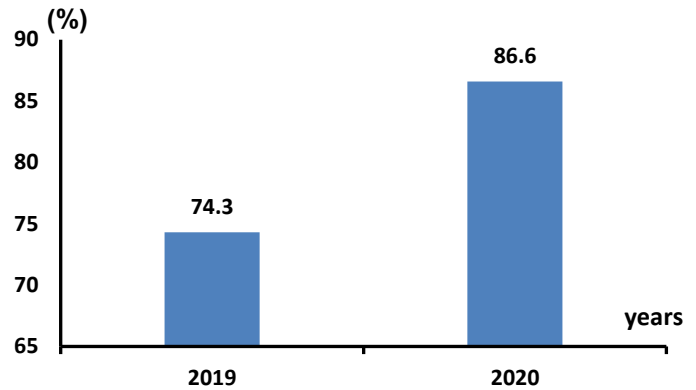

- Proportion of treated wastewater in Egypt was 86.6% in 2020 versus 74.3% in 2019.

Source:

Holding company for water and wastewater

Proportion of treated wastewater in Egypt (2019,2020)

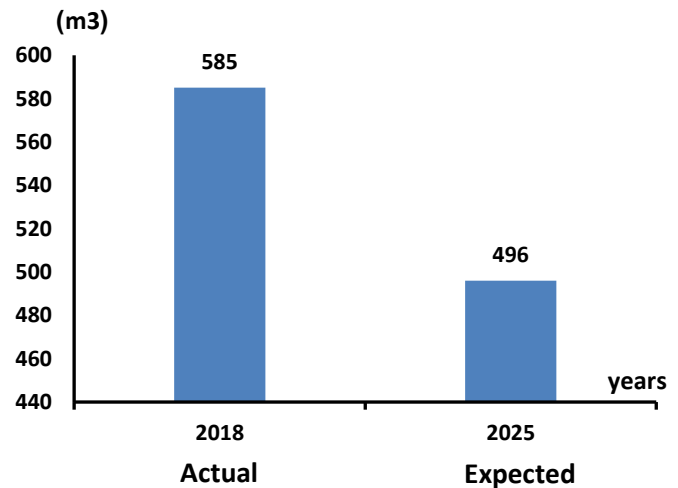

- The Per capita share of all fresh water resources in Egypt reached 585m3 in 2018 , and according to ministry of water resources and irrigation estimates, it is expected that by 2025 this number decrease to 496 m3.

Source:

Ministry of Water Resources and Irrigation

freshwater resources Per capita in Egypt

- Egyptian government is currently seeking to implement the strategic plan to expand establishment of seawater desalination plants to provide drinking water needs. This plan is divided into six of five -year plans extending from 2020 to 2050, which are planned to provide total capacity estimated at 6.4 million m3 per day of desalinated sea water.

Source:

Ministry of Housing, Utilities and Urban Communities